

SMFC DELTA INTEREST FORM

Due by Sunday, August 19th, 2018

Thank you so much for your interest in joining Delta. Please complete this form and return it to a staff member. If you have any questions regarding the form or what it means to be in Delta, please let us know.

And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his likeness with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

- Paul, 2 Corinthians 3:18

If your outward actions are a result (a by-product) of something that has taken place deep within you, then these outward actions do receive spiritual value and they do possess real goodness. But outward activities have only as much spiritual value as they receive from their source.

- Jeanne Guyon, Experiencing the Depths of Jesus Christ, p. 107

Delta Conduct Covenant

Becoming a Delta leader is not simply about accomplishing goals. A Delta leader is one who also sets an example for others in regards to integrity, character and morality. We assume that anyone who chooses to be in Delta has a desire to live as Christ, being a new creation and living now as a citizen of the Kingdom of heaven. With this understood, we want you to clearly understand the expectations we have of a Delta leader and to acknowledge that it is your intent to live within these expectations.

As a follower of Jesus and as a leader within the Student Ministry at First Colony, I commit that I will:

1. Conduct myself in the spirit of Titus 2:11-12: "For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age."
2. Present my body as a living sacrifice to God, honoring Him in all my actions and seeking a balanced, godly life. I will strive to prioritize sleep and a healthy balance of personal time with God, schoolwork, work, Delta responsibilities and other commitments I make. (Romans 6:13; 12:1)
3. Make my best effort to prioritize studies. I understand that it is the Lord Jesus who receives glory as I serve Him as a student this year. (Colossians 3:23)
4. Refrain from using any substances, such as alcohol, tobacco, and drugs, in any way prohibited by proper authority such as the government, church, family, or school. (Romans 13:1-2; Galatians 5:19-21)
5. Reserve sexual activity for marriage, avoid sexually explicit material, and seek parental counsel when pursuing a romantic relationship. (1 Thessalonians 4:3-7)
6. Guard my tongue, speaking that which is wholesome and edifying and show respect to my fellow students. (Ephesians 4:29)
7. Regularly meet with other Christians for worship, prayer, encouragement, instruction, and spiritual accountability. (Hebrews 10:25; Acts 2:42)
8. Respect the leaders of SMFC and support the efforts of the ministry. (Hebrews 13:17)
9. I will resolve conflicts with others directly and humbly, speaking the truth in love. (Matthew 18:15-17; Ephesians 4:15-16)
10. Expect God to do great things through me next year! (Hebrews 11:6)

I have prayerfully considered this covenant and pledge my faithfulness to its terms.
